

CALL TO ARTISTS

Support Young Artists and Show Your Work at the 24th Annual Davis Arts Center Holiday Sale
December 5 - 7, 2014

Your donated original artwork will be available for purchase in a silent auction - it will be viewed by an audience of over 5,000 art buyers on the Wooliever Wall of Art.

All proceeds go to the Gerald R. Wooliever Scholarship Fund, administered by Davis Arts Center, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Scholarships are awarded to Davis high school students. Each spring Davis high school seniors are selected by their art teachers to submit portfolios of their work for a juried show at the Arts Center. The winners, chosen by local artists, are awarded scholarships through this fund to continue their studies. The recognition and support that these awards provide for young artists truly make a difference in their lives. Artists who donate work to the Wooliever Wall of Art are invited to the show's reception.

Showcase your work, name and website while you contribute to, and show support for, young artists. Your donation is greatly appreciated!

Please bring your artwork ready for hanging along with this completed form to the Davis Arts Center office between Saturday, November 22 and Thursday, December 4. (Note Arts Center is closed Thursday - Sunday, November 27-30). Artwork will not be accepted once the Holiday Sale has begun! Your contact information is needed for acknowledgement purposes, as well as for inquiries from buyers. Call Davis Arts Center at (530) 756-4100 for office hours and/or questions.
