- When you submit a Maximum Bid (a “Max Bid”), Christie’s will attempt to execute your bid at the lowest possible amount as determined by competing bids for that lot. If two or more parties leave identical bids, the first bid received will take precedence. You may adjust a Max Bid in situations when the current bidding is still below the submitted maximum bid amount.
- In a time-based auction, you cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may adjust a Max Bid in situations when the current bidding is still below the submitted maximum bid amount.
