Davis Arts Center is hiring Camp Counselors for Arts Summer Camp!

Application Deadline: May 1st, 2024

Passionate about art and children? Become an Art Camp Counselor at Davis Arts Center this summer! We are actively seeking enthusiastic leaders to help facilitate our Summer Arts Camp programming, which will offer a wide variety of creative experiences for young artists ages 6-12. Must be available for the entire camp program: Tuesday, June 17 through Friday, August 23, 2024.

Ideal applicants will be motivated, mature, energetic individuals who are open-minded and supportive of children in their creative expression. Ideal candidates will be committed to bringing sensitivity to the emotional, social and educational needs of campers. Must be devoted to fostering an inclusive and supportive camp environment, with an understanding of how to help campers develop self-confidence and a positive self-image. The ability to collaborate with staff, teaching artists, and fellow counselors is essential.

Please email search@davisartscenter.org with a description of your experience working with children and the arts and/or a resume. Please provide references (up to 3).
